IHMM ISSUES MEDIA KIT TO ASSIST NEWS MEDIA WITH HAZMAT INCIDENTS

[Rockville, MD] Every day in America there are more than 800,000 shipments of hazardous materials. Some include deliveries of fuels to our local gas stations, or deliveries of nuclear material to medical or electrical generating facilities.

From time to time, fortunately rarely, accidents occur. IHMM offers the specialized expertise of thousands of professionals nationwide to provide news outlets with the unbiased, professional analysis so important for readers, listeners and viewers.

IHMM is a private certification body that has created the toughest standards in the nation for achieving certification of our credentials. Since 1984, IHMM has conveyed certifications upon more than 16,000 out of roughly 1.2 million people that work in the hazardous materials and dangerous goods communities of practice. Our Press Kit is here <https://www.ihmm.org/about-ihmm/media-kitadvertising>

IHMM certificants have achieved the highest level of professionalism in their fields, and now IHMM wants to make these extraordinary individuals available to provide expert commentary, insight, and context when the news media and the nation need it most.
