

Kortney Tunstall

Kortney Tunstall's role at IHMM is to check all applications to make sure they meet the requirements to become a candidate. She also helps candidates with registering and preparing for the exam. When a candidate passes the exam, she is responsible for timely distribution of Welcome Packets to new certificants which includes certificates and letters of approval of certification. Ms. Tunstall has had experience handling phone calls and assisting a variety of people. As a staffing assistant at the mental hospital, Sheppard Pratt, she works with nurses and mental health workers to help with staffing the units. she previously worked at a safe house for Family and Children services and volunteered for a sexual and domestic violence hotline where she provided resources to victims and abusers. Ms. Tunstall adapts very well to new environments, as she spent a year also teaching English in China.

Ms. Tunstall graduated from University of Baltimore and majored in Psychology. Her last year of college, she became a member of the National Society of Leadership and Success. She presented "The Evoking Freedom Technique Using Surveys" and "Employees Personalities and their Preferred Work Values in a Clinical Setting" where she did research on the satisfaction of employees.

In her spare time, Ms. Tunstall enjoys singing, traveling, doing yoga, and spending time with her family and friends.