

BYLAWS OF THE INSTITUTE OF HAZARDOUS MATERIALS MANAGEMENT ARTICLE I

NAME

Section 1: Name. The name of the corporation is the Institute of Hazardous Materials Management, hereinafter referred to as “the Institute”.

Section 2: Abbreviation. The official abbreviation of the Institute shall be “IHMM.”

ARTICLE II PURPOSE

Section 1: Purpose. The purpose of IHMM is to develop and promote professional standards for certification and to administer credible certification programs for individuals who practice in the disciplines of Health, Safety, the Environment, and Dangerous Goods.

Section 2: Additional Pursuits. IHMM may pursue any other lawful purposes as may be approved by the Board of Directors, so long as they are in accord with Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code as it may be amended and are in compliance with the requirements of the District of Columbia Nonprofit Corporation Law.

ARTICLE III DEFINITIONS

Section 1: Definitions. For the purposes of these Bylaws, the terms listed below are defined as follows:

- A. Candidate: A person who has applied for a credential issued by IHMM and is in the process of meeting the requirements for certification.
- B. Certificant: A person who has successfully completed the certification process administered by IHMM and has been issued a numbered and dated credential certificate. Such certifiants shall retain their status so long as they maintain their certification in accordance with the requirements for certification and recertification as set by IHMM.
- C. Certificate: A numbered and dated document issued by IHMM to an individual indicating that the named individual (the certificant) has met the requirements for the designation named therein. Possession of a certificate does not necessarily verify that the holder is currently certified and in good standing. Certificates remain valid only for as long as the holder remains in compliance with IHMM certification and recertification requirements.
- D. Certification: The act of issuing a numbered and dated certificate to a candidate who has fulfilled all the requirements for a credential.
- E. Code of Ethics: A document which must be signed by a candidate for an IHMM certification, pledging to abide by IHMM’s standards of ethical conduct.
