IHMM Board of Directors Announces Election Results

ROCKVILLE, MD (January 4, 2012) – The Board of Directors (BOD) of the Institute of Hazardous Materials Management (IHMM) is pleased to announce the results of the election for open board director positions. Elected as directors for four-year terms starting January 1, 2012 were Matthew J. Redmann and James J. Spatarella.

Mr. Redmann has over 20 years of professional experience, currently serving as an Environmental Manager with Harley-Davidson Motor Company. Mr. Redmann holds a Master of Environmental Management degree from Duke University and earned the CHMM credential in 1994. Mr. Redmann was awarded the AHMP Young CHMM of the Year award in 2003 and the AHMP Champion of Excellence Award (2006–2011). Mr. Redmann's contributions include: member of AHMP National Awards Committee, an IHMM Certification Peer Reviewer, and Chapter President, Wisconsin CHMM Chapter. Mr. Redmann has Six Sigma training and has volunteered to lead United Way campaigns at Harley-Davidson Motor Company.

Mr. Spatarella has worked in the hazardous materials management field for over 30 years, currently serving as a Lead Associate with Booz Allen Hamilton. Mr. Spatarella holds a Master of Science in Civil Engineering from the Polytechnic Institute of New York and earned the CHMM credential in 1985. Mr. Spatarella was awarded the AHMP Champion of Excellence Award in 2011. Mr. Spatarella's contributions include: Past President of the National Chapter of AHMP and an instructor for modules for the Essentials of Hazardous Materials Management Training Program. Mr. Spatarella has Six Sigma training and has volunteered to mentor students in the University of Maryland chemical engineering program.

“We are pleased to welcome Matthew and James as the Institute's newest Directors,” stated Elizabeth R. Pfeiffer, IHMM Chairman of the Board. “Both Matthew and James have stated their commitment to use their strengths and experiences to further support IHMM credentials. The IHMM Board of Directors is fortunate to have directors with the passion, commitment, and dedication required to ensure the long term success of the Institute and our accredited certification programs.”

About the Institute of Hazardous Materials Management

For over 25 years the Institute of Hazardous Materials Management, a not-for-profit organization founded in 1984, has been protecting the environment and the public's health, safety, and security through the administration of credentials recognizing professionals who have demonstrated a high level of knowledge, expertise, and excellence in the management of hazardous materials.

Over 15,000 homeland security, environmental protection, engineering, health sciences, transportation, and public safety professionals have earned IHMM's accredited Certified Hazardous Materials Manager (CHMM) credential. IHMM also administers the Certified Hazardous Materials Practitioner (CHMP) credential and the Hazardous Materials Manager-in-Training (HMMT) program.
