

Kaylene Cagle is the Certification Coordinator for the Health and Safety Certifications for IHMM. She reviews/processes applications and verifies required experience and education levels for candidates who are eligible for certification. She is experienced in the preparation of IHMM documentation with precise accuracy and skillfulness. Kaylene brings a strong and conscientious customer service background along with meticulous organizational skills that benefit the IHMM team. Mrs. Cagle has worked in customer-based organizations, early childhood education, and volunteered many years with various military support programs.

In her free time Kaylene enjoys spending time with family and friends, cooking, shopping, watching sports, and all outdoor activities.